

FORKS & CORKS

January 27-30, 2012

Media Credentials Request Form

Media credentials are only available to editorial-based media with a specific assignment, industry affiliation, and proven track record for published articles and stories. They are not available for guests or sales staff. Credentials are non-transferable and cannot be used by any person other than the approved journalist or photographer. Due to space limitations at events, a limited number of tickets are available for festival events and no media tickets are guaranteed. If interested in attending an event to solely take photographs, special arrangements can be made ahead of time. Only one credential per application will be issued and multiple requests from any media outlet must be individually submitted for review and approval. A business card and photo i.d. will be required to pick up any credentials. Credentials are for Forks & Corks-related events only and do not include any transportation, lodging or gratuity-related expenses. Winemaker event credentials are very limited and will be issued at the discretion of the participating restaurant and do not include an appropriate gratuity for the service staff.
